Dear Boris
Not easy to find one. German culture made most of people very uptight and too disciplined to be really interesting. It also depends on the topics of interest for the ExB. Economy?Politics?History?. Of people I happen to know I've thought of De Mezziere but he happened to be nominated Min of Interior in the new Gov. Another one is General Dr. Klaus Naumann who was head of German Armed Forces and later on Military Secretary of NATO in Brussels. Third could be Dr. Joffee of Die Zeit , an important German thinker. Probably also Dr. Ischinger who was ambassador to the US. (I don't know whether he is available for such appearances). Lastly I would have considered Trichet. He is a bit old and not exactly German but I've found him quite sharp and alert when appearing with him on economic/geopolitical panels. If it is still open to totally different choices Stan Fischer(future(?)no. 2 in the Fed),or Nuriell Rubini, both interesting thinkers on Economy policies could be good.
(Take note I might make spelling mistakes when writing German names).
Hope you enjoy Seasons Holiday. Best regards to Cherin from Nili and myself.
Waiting for your response on the other issues I've raised and looking forward for a fruitful 2014
Best
EB
